

Agnes Shedd Andreae (ASA) Summer Internship Fellowship
Environmental Science and Policy Program , Smith College

NOAA College-Supported Internship Program

Application deadline: February 5, 2024

The Environmental Science and Policy Program (ES&P) offers financial support for summer internships with the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). The ASA Fellowship awards a stipend of $6,000 for ten-week internships. Fellowship recipients are required to give a presentation about their experience at an ES&P event in the fall. Graduating seniors are not eligible for this fellowship.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Smith ID# _____

Major/Minor: _____

Campus Box: _____ Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Person Writing Reference Letter: _____

Contact Joanne Benkley for a listing of this year's internship descriptions .

Internship Title: Applicants may apply to three internships.

First Choice: _____

Second Choice: _____

Third Choice: _____

The following materials must be submitted with this application:

- 1) Letter of interest: Please include a one-page letter that describes your interest in the internships you have listed above, the skills/experience/knowledge you possess that make you a good candidate, and how the internships relate to your academic and future plans.
- 2) Unofficial transcript: Please include an unofficial college transcript or other documentation of your current academic standing and college-level course work.
- 3) Résumé: Please include a copy of your résumé.
- 4) Letter of recommendation: Please include a letter of recommendation from a faculty member who knows you well. Letters should be sent by the recommender to Joanne Benkley, Associate Director, Environmental Science and Policy Program via email: jbenkley@smith.edu

Please return completed application form and all attachments to Joanne Benkley, Associate Director, ES&P, jbenkley@smith.edu

Questions? Contact Joanne at x3951 or by email

You will be notified when all application materials have been received.